

Office of Freshman Admissions Overnight Guest Agreement

Thank you for participating in the overnight program through the Office of Freshman Admissions at St. John Fisher College. As a guest on the St. John Fisher College campus, you are expected to adhere to all College policies and any policies and/or additional expectations of the Office of Freshman Admissions.

Student Section

Admissions Overnight Guest Guidelines & Agreement

- I will refrain from the use of alcohol and/or drugs during my visit to St. John Fisher College.
- I will not change my plans to be on campus without direct communication with the Admissions Overnight Coordinator and my parents/guardians.
- I agree to stay with my host at all times throughout my visit.
- I will not go off campus for any reason unless I am on a field trip that is conducted and supervised by a St. John Fisher College faculty/staff member.
- I understand that I am able to participate in any event on campus except for events where alcohol is served.
- I understand that I represent my high school as a guest at St. John Fisher College and will behave accordingly.
- I understand that should I encounter any problems with my host or any situation I am placed in by my host which is of concern, I must contact The Office of Safety and Security at 585-385-8025.
- I understand that as a guest, I am expected to follow St. John Fisher College's Student Code of Conduct.

I understand that failure to comply with items listed on this form may result in me being sent home early and I may jeopardize my candidacy for admission to the College. To the best of my knowledge, the information on this form is accurate as it relates to my official visit to St. John Fisher College.
